Venice, May 27.

ON the 24th Inſtant, a Number of Tranſports ſailed for Dalmatia, having on board 800 Men from Parma to recruit the Regiments of that Prince which are in the Service of the Republick, as alſo large Stores of Ammunition and Proviſions. Other Tranſports are getting ready for Corfu, which are to carry 2000 Recruits, with the Battallion of Treviſe conſiſting of 500 Men, and are to be convoyed by the St. Andrew and St. Peter d'Alcantara, Men of War of the ſecond Rate. Yeſterday the Doge went to the Lido, and performed the Annual Ceremony of Marrying the Sea; on which Occaſion he gave a magnificent Entertainment to the Company that attended him.

Vienna, May 28. We have Advice from Paſſarowitz, that the Plenipotentiaries have agreed that during the Time the Conferences for treating of Peace ſhall be held there, no Hoſtilities ſhall be committed within two Leagues round that Place. On the 15th Inſtant the Turkiſh Ambaſſadours diſpatched a Courier for Adrianople by the Way of Niſſa; and the next Day the Imperial Miniſters ſent an Expreſs to this Court, where a great Council having been held on the 23d in the Emperour's Preſence, the ſame Meſſenger was ſent back again to Paſſarowitz. 'Tis ſaid that the full Powers of the Turkiſh Ambaſſadours not being in the requiſite Form, the opening of the Congreſs will be delayed till the Return of the Courier from the Ottoman Court. Letters from Belgrade of the 20th Inſtant, ſay the Imperialiſts had begun to draw together at Semlin; and that all the Troops were to be in the Camp within 10 Days, in order to the forming of the Army the Beginning of next Month. Prince Eugene waits only for the Emperour's Orders to ſet out for Hungary.

Berne, June 1. Several Copies of a Libel having been diſperſed lately in this City, reflecting upon certain Members of this State, and tending towards ſtirring up a Sedition amongſt the Citizens, a ſtrict Inquiry is making to find out the Author; and a Proclamation was iſſued out ſome Days ago by the Sovereign Council, promiſing a Reward of 1000 Crowns to any Perſon that ſhould diſcover the ſaid Author; and, beſides this Reward, a full Pardon to any one, who having had a Hand in it, ſhould declare who was the principal Contriver of it; but hitherto nothing has been diſcovered. It is adviſed from Baſil, that the Marqueſs D'Avarey Ambaſſadour of France to the Helvetick Body, had paſſed by Hunninguen in his Way to Paris, from whence he is expected back at Soleure in a few Weeks. They write from Milan the 24th paſt, that the Governour cauſed the new Fortifications of that City to be carried on with all Diligence, and that 400 Men had been ſent to Mantua, and as many to Pizzighetone, to finiſh the ſeveral Outworks with which thoſe two Places are ordered to be ſtrengthened. The Two Cantons of Zurich and Berne having agreed upon an Anſwer to be made to the Emperour's laſt Letter concerning the Complaints and Pretenſions of the Biſhop of Conſtance, the ſame was tranſmitted ſome Days ago to the Court of Vienna. By this Anſwer the Two Cantons endeavour to clear themſelves of the Accuſation the ſaid Biſhop had laid to their Charge, as if they infringed the Juriſdiction he has in the County of Torgaw, (of which the Two Cantons, together with the Six other old ones, are joint Sovereigns;) and they attribute the ill Opinion the Emperour has conceived of them, to the groundleſs Inſinuations of ſome Perſons, deſiring his Imperial Majeſty not to give any more Credit to the ſiniſter Repreſentations of their Enemies, who would make them paſs for turbulent, unjuſt and ambitious People. At Baden the Conferences continue, and 'tis not doubted but the Treaty will now ſoon be perfected.

Hague, June 10. On the 8th Inſtant the Earl of Cadogan, His Britannick Majeſty's Ambaſſadour Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary, ſet out from hence at 11 in the Morning to go to Delft, where he was entertained with a Dinner by the States of the Province of Holland. Between Three and Four in the Afternoon, his Excellency came in one of the States Yachts to a Bridge on the other Side of Ryſwick, where he was received and complimented by M. Eckhout and Taminga, two Deputies of the States General, on the Part of their High Mightineſſes. His Excellency
